I certify that I am enrolling in a UNC Dual Enrollment course at my high school for which I am to receive college credit from the University of Northern Colorado. If I choose not to complete the registration process, I understand I will not be allowed to register at a later date. I understand that UNC will permanently record grades issued by the instructor. Finally, I am aware that I am financially responsible to UNC for the tuition.

Course Drop/Withdrawal:

- Deadlines are available at <http://extended.unco.edu/courses-workshops/dual-enrollment/students/schools-list.asp>, and are also listed on your registration form.
- You can drop your course up until the designated drop deadline
 - Course will be removed from your transcript and you will receive a full tuition refund
- After the drop deadline and up until the withdrawal deadline you can withdraw from your course
 - Course will remain on your transcript with a grade of "W" (this does not impact GPA), and there is no tuition refund
- After the withdrawal deadline you are unable to be removed from the course
 - Course will remain on your transcript with the grade that you have earned, and there is no tuition refund

You may drop/ withdraw from an individual course by completing the Dual Enrollment Course Drop/Withdrawal Request form at <http://extended.unco.edu/courses-workshops/dual-enrollment/students/register.asp#dw> If you do not officially drop or withdraw though UNC, you will receive a grade of "F" for all courses not completed and full tuition will be due. If you stop attending the course but fail to officially withdraw from the course(s), you will be responsible for full tuition and fees and the course grade will remain on transcript.
