Class Meetings: September 26, 27 & 28 and October 24, 25 & 26: Fridays 6-10 p.m., Saturdays and Sundays 8 a.m. –5 p.m.

Description:
This course is designed to introduce the student to the legal principles involved in sport and to apply those principles to a variety of managerial functions pertinent to sport settings. Using the law to make a sport organization more competitive is also a prime focus of this course.

Objectives:
1. Students will demonstrate comprehension of the general principles of law as they relate to sport settings.
2. Students will develop the ability to analyze legal cases.
3. Students will demonstrate the ability to apply legal principles to specific issues encountered as managers in sport settings.

Required Text:
2. Supplemental readings on reserve and on Lexis.

Course Requirements:
1. Regular attendance.
2. Class participation as demonstrated by discussion of the assigned readings and cases.
3. Analysis of assigned law review articles and review questions.
4. Completion of a final examination.

Students should plan to complete their assignments on time. Any assignment not turned in timely will receive a grade of zero for that assignment.
Academic Misconduct Policy:

In accordance with university policy, instances of cheating, plagiarism, fabrication, or other offenses that are considered academic misconduct may be reported to the Chief Disciplinary Officer of the University for investigation. At a minimum, any of these offenses will result in a grade of F for the assignment; the maximum sanction will be disciplinary action as set forth in the Handbook of Graduate Education. Students should refer to the Handbook for further clarification of what constitutes academic misconduct.

Determination of Final Grade:
Foremost in the determination of the final grade is the quality of the student's work and participation regarding the assignments.

Grades will be based on the following percentages:

- Law Review Analysis: 25%
- Video questions: 10%
- Law Review Analysis: 25%
- Final Exam: 40%

For the first weekend of class, please read Chapters 1, 2, 3, 5, 15, 16, 17 & 18. It is imperative that you have read this material before coming to class on September 26.
