Suggested Readings

Complete Prior to the First Course Meeting

Students would benefit from doing the following activities prior to the first weekend of class.

- Purchase or bring a digital recorder or video recorder if you have one.
- Visit and peruse the American Counseling Association web site (www.counseling.org).
- Find and read two articles published by ACA or one of the divisions of ACA. Find these articles through the UNC Library Website-please do not pay for an article. See www.counseling.org for a complete list of the divisions.
- Locate a practicing counselor who has a master’s degree in either community or school counseling who would be willing to be interviewed.
- Read assigned readings listed below from required textbooks as all reading assignments must be completed prior to class meeting times.

Instructional Methods

To achieve the objectives of this course and address the course content, the instructor will employ a variety of teaching interventions that will include group discussions, individual projects, lectures, demonstrations, facilitated reflection, and simulated activities.

Course Requirements/Assignments (please contact us via e-mail prior to class if you have questions regarding the assignments)

Attendance and Participation: Attendance for this course is mandatory and necessary. Experiences that are conducted within the course are highly interactive and they cannot be replicated. In order to achieve an A in the course students must attend 95% of the class time; therefore if you will need to miss class time you may want to consider dropping the class or taking the class at a more convenient time. Points toward your final grade will be based on your attendance and participation.
Initial Position Paper (Please begin this paper, however, we will discuss this further in class): Students will prepare an initial position paper using APA Style in which they respond to the following topics:

- My beliefs about human nature (basic nature of people)
- My beliefs about personality (how personality and traits develop)
- My beliefs about etiology of psychological problems (maladaptation)
- My beliefs about why and how people change and the counselor’s role
- My beliefs about optimal psychological well-being and what promotes it

(Related Objectives: 2, 4, 6, 7, 8, 7, 11, 13, 12, 22, 25)

Interview: Following the protocol we develop during the first week of class, students will interview one (1) counselor in community practice or agency who has a master's in school or community counseling or doctoral degree in Counselor Education. Students are encouraged to interview counselors who practice in diverse settings. They are further encouraged (strongly) to audiotape the interviews with the permission of the interviewee.

Subsequent to the interview, you are asked to (a) send a letter of appreciation, and (b) write a summary of your findings using APA Style that may be supported by verbatim quotes from the interview. The summary should be well organized and demonstrate a personal reflection of the findings from the interview. This summary should not be a transcript of your interview. (Related Objectives: 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, and 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, 16, 17, 18, 19, 20, 21, 25.)

NOTE: Participation in this activity is clear evidence of counselors’ professional generosity. You must regard all information provided to you as confidential. Tapes should be destroyed after you have completed your summary. Information they provide should be reported without revealing the identity of the counselors you cite.

Annotated Bibliography: Students will prepare an annotated bibliography using APA Style reflecting two (2) articles that are selected from various American Counseling Association journals (Journal of Counseling and Development, division journals, or branch journals). The articles should relate to general topics addressed in the course. We will discuss this assignment further in class. Please utilize the UNC library website to access these articles do not pay for articles online.

These annotated bibs are meant to include two or so paragraphs of article summary and a paragraph or two of your professional and personal reactions to the article. (Related Objectives: 1, 13, 23, 25 (Could also relate to objectives 5, 6, 7, 8, and 10))

Active Listening Audiotape/Transcript: Students will prepare an audiotape reflecting a minimum of 10 minutes sustained dialogue. The tape will be transcribed. This dialogue will be completed during class time and transcription and reflection will be due during the second weekend.
Performance on the audiotape will reflect students' initial beliefs about appropriate and effective counselor responses. The segment must be transcribed as discussed in class. The reflection and transcript of this tape should reflect understanding of course content. The segment must be transcribed and reflected upon in a reflection section in your paper and in relation to your responses throughout the transcription of dialogue.

(Related Objectives: 7, 11, 12, 24, 25)

For hints on APA Style you may want to visit and you are strongly encouraged to purchase an APA Style Manual:

Additional Information

Academic Conduct: Cheating on examination, submitting work of other students as your own, or plagiarism in any form will result in penalties ranging from an “F” on an assignment to expulsion from the University.

PowerPoint Presentations: PowerPoint presentations used in class are for instructional purposes only and will not be released to the students for personal use.
Honor Code: All members of the University of Northern Colorado community are entrusted with the responsibility to uphold and promote five fundamental values: Honesty, Trust, Respect, Fairness, and Responsibility. These core elements foster an atmosphere, inside and outside of the classroom, which serves as a foundation and guides the UNC community's academic, professional, and personal growth. Endorsement of these core elements by students, faculty, staff, administration, and trustees strengthens the integrity and value of our academic climate.

UNC’s Policies: UNC’s policies and recommendations for academic misconduct will be followed.

Portable Electronic Devices: Please extend courtesy to your instructor and fellow students by turning off your portable electronic devices such as: cell phones, pagers, and iPods. Although not an audio issue, text-messaging is a distraction to other students and prevents you from full participation in class. You should keep your portable electronic devices in your backpack or purse during class. Your personal electronic devices should not be on your desks. Additionally, any audio recording of class without the consent of the instructor and your classmates in an ethical violation. If you know that you may need to accept an emergency phone call during class or if you have children in childcare or school, please let the instructor know. If you need to take a phone call during class, please step out of the classroom while you complete your call. Thank you for your cooperation.

Professional Conduct: Students are expected to adhere to the appropriate code of ethics for their particular program. Any behavior deemed unethical will be grounds for dismissal from the program.

Accommodations Statement: Students who believe that they may need accommodations in this class are encouraged to contact the Disability Support Services, voice/TTY (970) 351-2289, or fax (970) 351-4166, or visit www.unco.edu/dss as soon as possible to ensure that accommodations are implemented in a timely fashion.

Inclusivity Statement

The College of Education and Behavioral Sciences (CEBS) supports an inclusive learning environment where diversity and individual differences are understood, respected, appreciated, and recognized as a source of strength. We expect that students, faculty, administrators and staff within CEBS will respect differences and demonstrate diligence in understanding how other peoples’ perspectives, behaviors, and worldviews may be different from their own.

The instructor may make changes to the syllabus as the course proceeds. If this is necessary these changes will be announced in class.
