COURSE REQUIREMENTS:

1. Diagnostic Presentations: Students will develop a overview of one of the diagnostic chapters in the DSM-5-TR, and will present it during the last weekend of class. A minimum of 7-10 resources from the literature should be utilized (DSM-5-TR should be one resource), and the presentation should be no more than 30 minutes in length. More specific information on this assignment will be given the first day of class.
2. Case Study: Students will be provided with a case study that is based on the diagnostic chapter that they are assigned for Item 1 (above). They will develop biopsychosocial case conceptualization including DSM-5-TR diagnosis, and outline an effective treatment plan for the case. It will include a description of client strengths and resources (family, social networks, community systems, etc.), as well as appropriate treatment modalities for format of service delivery. Students should identify empirically validated treatment interventions. A general theoretical approach should be incorporated into the treatment plan and used to support the interventions selected. If psychopharmacological interventions are appropriate for the case assigned and are recommended in the paper, these should be supported by the literature, and indications and/or contraindications should be discussed. The case conceptualization will provide a review of the current literature on the specific diagnosis identified. A minimum of 7-10 resources from the literature should be utilized (the DSM-5-TR should be one resource. The paper will be graded according to the depth and coherence of the analysis in accordance with course material. There is a maximum page limit of 10 pages for each paper (CACREP II.G.5.d, CACREP II.G.3.h, & CACREP II.G.5.a) not including a cover page or reference page. The most current APA version (7th Edition) should be used; formatting can be modified in the treatment plan section of the paper. More specific information regarding this assignment will be presented the first day of class.

3. Small Group Case Conceptualization & Treatment Planning Case Studies. Students will be divided into small groups and provided with case studies for which they will offer a formal DSM-5-TR diagnosis and a brief biopsychosocial treatment plan. Students will identify empirically validated treatment interventions and incorporate a theoretical perspective. These will be presented in class.
4. Participation: Graduate students are expected to be responsible for regular and punctual class attendance. Because this information may only become useful to the extent that it is put into practice, students are expected to participate fully in class discussions and in small group activities. Please note that attendance is mandatory. Active participation is essential, and your participation grade will be evaluated in the following way:
 - Excellent (90-100%) – Proactive participation: leading, originating, informing, challenging contributions that reflect in-depth study, thought, and analysis of the topic under consideration as well as a demonstrated ability to listen to and build upon the ideas of others.
 - Satisfactory (70-89%) – Reactive participation: supportive, follow-up contributions that are relevant and of value, but rely on the leadership and study of others, or reflect opinion rather than study, thought, and contemplation.
 - Minimally Acceptable (50-69%) – Passive participation: present, awake, alert, attentive, but not actively involved.
 - Unsatisfactory (49% or less) – Uninvolved: absent, present but not attentive, sleeping, answering email, surfing the web, texting, making irrelevant contributions that inhibit the progress of the discussion.

COURSE EVALUATION: Your final grade will be based on the following:

1. Presentation of Selected Diagnostic Chapter (30%)
2. Case Conceptualization & Treatment Plan Paper (30%)
3. Small Group Case Conceptualization & Treatment Plans (20%)
4. Class Participation (20%)

Note: Attendance and participation is critical to active learning in this course; class time is spent on application of the material in the readings, and therefore this is not a component that can be missed. Missing class without getting prior approval will result in an unexcused absence. Each unexcused absence will result in a one letter grade deduction from your final grade. Being tardy for class (more than 10 minutes late) three or more times will be counted as one unexcused absence. Missing four hours or more of class will result in failure of the class. Missing significant portions of time (less than four hours) will also result in corresponding deductions from your grade (i.e., missing one hour = one full letter grade deduction.)

Please see the APCE 558 Diagnosis and Treatment Planning Assessment Rubric in the “Files” page of the Canvas course, for detailed information on proficiency levels related to the knowledge learning outcomes addressed in this course. A final letter grade is based on accumulation of the above elements. Percentages:

|----|---------|----|----------|
| A | 94-100% | C | 73-76 |
| A- | 90-93 | C- | 70-72 |
| B+ | 87-89 | D+ | 67-69 |
| B | 83-86 | D | 63-66 |
| B- | 80-82 | D- | 60-62 |
| C+ | 77-79 | F | Below 60 |

An "A" grade is reserved for students who do exceptional work in all areas of the course. A "B" grade means that you met all of the requirements, at a level expected of most graduate students. Grades reflect the level of performance in the course only; the most frequent grade in this course is a B.

Portable Electronic Devices: Please extend courtesy to your instructor and fellow students by turning off your portable electronic devices. Although not an audio issue, text-messaging is a distraction to other students and prevents you from full participation in class. You should keep your portable electronic devices away during class. Your personal electronic devices should not be on your desks. If you know that you may need to accept an emergency phone call during class, please let the instructor know. If you need to take a phone call during class, please step out of the classroom while you complete your call. Please also remember that any unauthorized audio recordings of class will not be allowed and would be considered unprofessional and unethical.

Lecture Materials: Lecture materials used in class are for instructional purposes only and will not be released to the students for personal use.

Academic Conduct: Cheating on assignments or examinations, submitting work of other students as your own, or plagiarism in any form will result in penalties ranging from an "F" on an assignment to expulsion from the University.

APCE Policy on Plagiarism: Plagiarism is the act of appropriating the written, artistic, or musical composition of another, or portions thereof; or the ideas, language, or symbols of same and passing them off as the product of one's own mind. Plagiarism includes not only the exact duplication of another's work but also the lifting of a substantial or essential portion thereof. Students who have engaged in the act of plagiarism will be given an "F" in that course. The matter will be referred to the Review and Retention Committee. The decision of the Committee with regard to plagiarism includes the possibility that the student be dismissed from his or her respective program and from UNC.

Professional Conduct: Students are expected to adhere to the appropriate code of ethics for their particular program. Any behavior which is deemed unethical will be grounds for dismissal from the program.

APCE Professional Membership Policy: As a graduate student in a professional training program, the faculty of the Division strongly encourage you to become a member of your professional association, e.g., ACA, AAMFT, ACES, ASCA, NASP, as well as Local State and/or Regional memberships.

UNC's Policies: UNC's policies and recommendations for academic misconduct will be followed:

Disability Resources:

It is the policy and practice of the University of Northern Colorado to create inclusive learning environments. If there are aspects of the instruction or design of this course that present barriers to students' inclusion or to accurate assessments of students' achievement (e.g. inaccessible web content, use of videos without captions), students should communicate about these aspects with their instructor(s). Additionally, if you have a temporary health condition or a permanent disability that requires accommodations, contact the Disability Resource Center (DRC) as soon as possible. DRC facilitates the interactive process that establishes reasonable accommodations.

Office: (970) 351-2289, Michener Library L-80.

Title IX

The University of Northern Colorado is committed to providing a safe learning environment for all students that is free of all forms of discrimination and sexual harassment, including sexual assault, domestic violence, dating violence, and stalking. Students who have experienced (or who know someone who has experienced) any of these incidents should know that they are not alone. UNC has staff members trained to support students to navigate campus life, to access health and counseling services, to provide academic and housing accommodations, to help with legal protective orders, and more.

*Please be aware all UNC instructors and most staff members are required to report their awareness of sexual violence to the Office of Institutional Equity and Compliance (OIEC). This means that if students tell an instructor about a situation involving sexual harassment, sexual assault, dating violence, domestic violence, or stalking, the instructor must share that information with the Title IX Coordinator. Trained staff member in OIEC will contact the reporting students to let them know about accommodations and support services at UNC as well as their options to pursue a process to hold accountable the person who caused the harm to them. *Students who have experienced these situations are not required to speak with OIEC staff regarding the incident. Students' participation in OIEC processes are entirely voluntary.

If students do not want the Title IX Coordinator notified, instead of disclosing this information to the instructor, students can speak confidentially with the following people on campus and in the community. They can connect you with support services and help explore options now, or in the future.

*Staff members at confidential campus resources are not required to automatically report incidents of sexual or relationship/dating violence or stalking to the University. There are limits to confidentiality, and before speaking with a staff member, those exceptions will be outlined. Students who are survivors, who are concerned about someone who is a survivor, or who would like to learn more about sexual misconduct or report an incident, can visit www.unco.edu/sexual-misconduct. Students may also contact OIEC at 970-351-4899 or email titleix@unco.edu.

Academic Integrity

Students are expected to practice academic honesty in every aspect of this course. Students who engage in academic misconduct are subject to grading consequences with regard to this course and/or university disciplinary procedures through the Student Conduct and Accountability. More information about the academic misconduct process can be found in UNC's Student Code of Conduct (BEAR Code).

Attendance

Students are expected to attend class regularly. Each instructor determines the relationship between class attendance, the objectives of the class, and students' grades. Instructors are responsible for articulating their attendance policies and their effect on grades to students. Students are responsible for knowing the attendance policy of each course. Only the instructor can approve students' absences. Students are responsible for requesting such approval. In an effort to create inclusive learning environments, instructors should not require doctors' notes to determine whether or not to excuse an absence.

Center for Career Readiness

Come visit us at the Center for Career Readiness to talk about resume, cover letter, interviewing, career/major exploration, job/internship search, graduate school search, and everything else career.

COVID-19

The COVID-19 pandemic is a complex, challenging, and fluid situation, which continues to evolve. UNC will follow applicable legal requirements and public health mandates, and evaluate federal, state, and county public health recommendations in all decisions related to university operations. Students should review the Coronavirus website for the current academic term for the most up to date guidance. Students who fail to comply with any public health requirements that UNC puts in place will be reminded of current policy; students who fail to correct their behavior will be asked to leave the classroom and may be referred to the Student Conduct and Accountability. The safety and well-being of our Community of Bears requires each of us to be prepared to do our part to protect the health of our entire campus community, as well as our friends, families, and neighbors. It is important that all members of the university community work together to do all we can to keep our community safe.

Equity and Inclusion

The University of Northern Colorado (UNC) embraces the diversity of students, faculty, and staff. UNC honors the inherent dignity of each individual, and welcomes their unique perspectives, behaviors, and world views. People of all races, religions, national origins, sexual orientations, ethnicities, genders and gender identities, cognitive, physical, and behavioral abilities, socioeconomic backgrounds, regions, immigrant statuses, military or veteran statuses, sizes and/or shapes are strongly encouraged to share their rich array of perspectives and experiences. Course content and campus discussions will heighten your awareness of others' individual and intersecting identities. For information or resources, contact the Division of Diversity, Equity and Inclusion, at 970-351-1944. If students want to report an incident related to identity-based discrimination/harassment, please visit www.unco.edu/institutional-equity-compliance.

Food Insecurity

Knowing that food insecurity is experienced at higher rates among college students, UNC offers assistance to students facing food insecurity through an on-campus food pantry. The Bear Pantry is located in University Center 2166A and is open for regular hours throughout the semester. Please visit www.unco.edu/bear-pantry for more information.

Land Acknowledgment

The University of Northern Colorado occupies the lands in the territories of the Ute, Cheyenne, Lakota and Arapaho peoples. The University acknowledges the 48 tribes that are historically tied to the state of Colorado. Thus, the land on which UNC is situated is tied to the history and culture of our native and indigenous peoples. UNC appreciates this connection and has great respect for this land. Additionally, the University community pays its respect to Elders past, present, and future, and to those who have stewarded this land throughout the generations.

As part of the learning and reflection process please visit <https://native-land.ca/> or call the Office of Equity & Inclusion at 970-351-1944.

Name in Use/Pronoun in Use/Name Change

Some students may have changed their names to better reflect their gender identity or for other reasons. The process to request that the University change the name that appears on Canvas and on the course roster is available here: <https://www.unco.edu/registrar/name-change.aspx>

Writing Center

The Writing Center offers three kinds of sessions to meet your writing needs: In-Person, Email, and Zoom Sessions. Trained Writing Center Consultants can assist you with writing assignments from any course or subject. Even if you think your writing is pretty good, it's always nice to have another reader look over your work. To guarantee a session time, make an appointment using our online scheduling system by visiting our website (below). We also have walk-in session times available during our scheduled open hours, Monday – Friday 9:00 am – 4:00 pm in the Writing Center, Ross Hall 1230 as well as walk-in sessions in the library (first floor) Monday – Thursday evenings, 5:00 pm – 8:00 pm. If your instructor requires you to visit the Writing Center, make sure to alert your Consultant, and/or check the box on the appointment form, and we will send an email confirmation of your session to your instructor. For more information, email the Writing Center at writingcenter@unco.edu or visit the website: www.unco.edu/writing-center.

Course Schedule

Late Assignment Policy: Late assignments will lose 10 points for every 24 hours the assignment is late (e.g. a paper that would have merited an “90” will received an “80” if submitted within 24 hours after the due date). Any paper submitted after the due date and time (11:59pm of due date), will receive a ten-point deduction. Students may request an extension during the course for emergencies only, reviewed at the instructor’s discretion; no extensions should be assumed or expected to be approved.
