KNOWLEDGE AND SKILL OUTCOMES: Upon successful completion of this course students will:

1. Students are covered by individual professional counseling liability insurance policies while enrolled in practicum and internship (CACREP Standard: 3.A). Assessed via documentation required to be released to enroll in the course; current proof of liability insurance to be kept by student in their internship file.
2. Supervision of practicum and internship students includes program-appropriate audio/video recordings and/or live supervision of students' interactions with clients (CACREP Standard: 3.B). Assessed via site agreement to adherence with this standard and site supervisor confirmation of performance of this activity.
3. Formative and summative evaluations of the student's counseling performance and ability to integrate and apply knowledge are conducted as part of the student's practicum and internship (CACREP Standard: 3.C). Assessed via documentation of mid-term and final evaluations from on-site clinical supervisor, and written documentation of evaluation of case conceptualization and treatment plan in student's file
4. Students have the opportunity to become familiar with a variety of professional activities and resources, including technological resources, during their practicum and internship (CACREP Standard: 3.D). Assessed via documentation in student learning outcomes, informal and formal case presentations, site visits, evaluation/documents and submitted written case conceptualization and treatment plan.

5. In addition to the development of individual counseling skills, during either the practicum or internship, students must lead or co-lead a counseling or psychoeducational group (CACREP Standard: 3.E). Assessed via logs documenting activities, feedback about site activities in class, and site visit review of performance.

6. After successful completion of the practicum, students complete 600 clock hours of supervised counseling internship in roles and settings with clients relevant to their specialty area (CACREP Standard: 3.J). Assessed via documentation of accrued logs of internship activity, signed by the on-site clinical supervisor.

7. Internship students complete at least 240 clock hours of direct service (CACREP Standard: 3.K). Assessed via documentation of accrued logs of internship activity, signed by the on-site clinical supervisor.

8. Internship students have weekly interaction with supervisors that averages one hour per week of individual and/or triadic supervision throughout the internship, provided by (1) the site supervisor, (2) counselor education program faculty, or (3) a student supervisor who is under the supervision of a counselor education program faculty member (CACREP Standard: 3.L). Assessed via documented logs of supervision activity signed by the on-site clinical supervisor, and attendance records of UNC group supervision.

9. Internship students participate in an average of 1½ hours per week of group supervision on a regular schedule throughout the internship. Group supervision must be provided by a counselor education program faculty member or a student supervisor who is under the supervision of a counselor education program faculty member (CACREP Standard: 3.M). Assessed via and attendance records of UNC group supervision.

10. Counselor education program faculty members serving as individual/triadic or group practicum/internship supervisors for students in entry-level programs have (1) relevant experience, (2) professional credentials, and (3) counseling supervision training and experience (CACREP Standard: 3.N). Assessed via adherence with formal training program requirements or documentation of having this experience/skills/credentials.

11. Students serving as individual/triadic or group practicum/internship supervisors for students in entry-level programs must (1) have completed CACREP entry-level counseling degree requirements, (2) have completed or are receiving preparation in counseling supervision, and (3) be under supervision from counselor education program faculty (CACREP Standard: 3.O). Assessed via adherence with adherence to formal training program requirements/documentation of supervision.

12. Site supervisors have (1) a minimum of a master's degree, preferably in counseling, or a related profession; (2) relevant certifications and/or licenses; (3) a minimum of two years of pertinent professional experience in the specialty area in which the student is enrolled;

(4) knowledge of the program's expectations, requirements, and evaluation procedures for students; and (5) relevant training in counseling supervision (CACREP Standard: 3.P). Site supervisor's must be licensed in their profession in the state of Colorado (ie, LPC, LCSW, LMFT, LP). Assessed via site supervisor resume (presented with documentation required to release the student to enroll in the course) and site approval process.

13. Orientation, consultation, and professional development opportunities are provided by counselor education program faculty to site supervisors (CACREP Standard: 3.Q). Assessed via UNC course credit offered to supervisors each semester, and contact information of internship coordinator provided to site supervisors for individual consultation as needed.

14. Written supervision agreements define the roles and responsibilities of the faculty supervisor, site supervisor, and student during practicum and internship. When individual/triadic practicum supervision is conducted by a site supervisor in consultation with counselor education program faculty, the supervision agreement must detail the format and frequency of consultation to monitor student learning (CACREP Standard: 3.R). Assessed via "Attachment A" (contract between student, program and site).

15. When individual/triadic supervision is provided by the counselor education program faculty or a student under supervision, practicum and internship courses should not exceed a 1:6 faculty:student ratio. This is equivalent to the teaching of one 3-semester credit hour or equivalent quarter hour course of a faculty member's teaching load assignment (CACREP Standard: 3.S). Assessed via course enrollment.

16. When individual/triadic supervision is provided solely by a site supervisor, and the counselor education program faculty or student under supervision only provides group supervision, practicum and internship courses should not exceed a 1:12 faculty:student ratio. This is equivalent to the teaching of one 3-semester credit hour or equivalent quarter credit hour course of a faculty member's teaching load assignment (CACREP Standard: 3.T). assessed via course enrollment.

17. Group supervision of practicum and internship students should not exceed a 1:12 faculty:student ratio (CACREP Standard: 3.U). Assess via course enrollment.

18. When counselor education program faculty provide supervision of students providing supervision, a 1:6 faculty to student ratio should not be exceeded. This is equivalent to the teaching of one 3-semester or equivalent quarter credit hours of a faculty member's teaching load assignment (CACREP Standard: 3.V). Assessed via course enrollment.

19. Self-care strategies appropriate to the counselor role (CACREP Standard: 2.F.1.l). Assessed via documentation in student learning outcomes, informal and formal case presentations/student check-ins, and formal site visits/evaluation/reviews.

20. The role of counseling supervision in the profession (CACREP Standard: 2.F.1.m). Assessed via documentation in student learning outcomes, informal and formal case presentations/student check-ins, use of the current literature and evidence-based practices (including multicultural and ethical guidelines and trauma-informed practices) in the submitted written case conceptualization and treatment plan, as well as professional membership in and adherence to guidelines/standards of professional organizations (i.e., ACA).and formal site visits/evaluation/reviews.

21. Effects of crisis, disasters, and trauma on diverse individuals across the lifespan (CACREP Standard: 2.F.3.g). Assessed via documentation in student learning outcomes, informal and formal case presentations in group supervision, formal site evaluation (midterm and final) reviews, and use of the current literature and evidence-based practices (including multicultural and ethical guidelines and trauma-informed practices) in the submitted written case conceptualization and treatment plan, as well as professional membership in and adherence to guidelines/standards of professional organizations (i.e., ACA).

22. Suicide prevention models and strategies (CACREP Standard: 2.F.5.l). Assessed via documentation in student learning outcomes, and use of the current literature and evidence-based practices (including suicide risk assessment and response) in the informal and formal case presentations in class, and the submitted written case conceptualization and treatment plan.

23. Counselor characteristics and behaviors that influence the counseling process (CACREP Standard: 2.F.5.f). Assessed via documentation in student learning outcomes, informal and formal case presentations in class, formal site evaluation (midterm and final) reviews.

24. Essential interviewing, counseling, and case conceptualization skills (CACREP Standard: 2.F.5.g). Assessed via documentation in student learning outcomes, informal and formal case presentations in group supervision, formal site evaluation (midterm and final) reviews, and use of the current literature and evidence-based practices (including multicultural and ethical guidelines and trauma-informed practices) in the submitted written case conceptualization and treatment plan.

25. Developmentally relevant counseling treatment or intervention plans (CACREP Standard: 2.F.5.h). Assessed via documentation in student learning outcomes, informal and formal case presentations in group supervision, formal site evaluation (midterm and final) reviews, and use of the current literature and evidence-based practices (including multicultural and ethical guidelines and trauma-informed practices) in the submitted written case conceptualization and treatment plan

26. Development of measurable outcomes for clients (CACREP Standard: 2.F.5.i). Assessed via documentation in student learning outcomes, informal and formal case presentations in group supervision, formal site evaluation (midterm and final) reviews, and use of the current literature and evidence-based practices (including multicultural and ethical guidelines and trauma-informed practices) in the submitted written case conceptualization and treatment plan.

27. Evidence-based counseling strategies and techniques for prevention and intervention (CACREP Standard: 2.F.5.j). Assessed via documentation in student learning outcomes, informal and formal case presentations in group supervision, formal site evaluation (midterm and final) reviews, and use of the current literature and evidence-based practices (including multicultural and ethical guidelines and trauma-informed practices) in the submitted written case conceptualization and treatment plan.

28. Strategies to promote client understanding of and access to a variety of community-based resources (CACREP Standard: 2.F.5.k). Assessed via documentation in student learning outcomes, informal and formal case presentations in group supervision, formal site evaluation (midterm and final) reviews, and use of the current literature and evidence-based practices (including multicultural and ethical guidelines and trauma-informed practices) in the submitted written case conceptualization and treatment plan.

29. Suicide prevention models and strategies (CACREP Standard: 2.F.5.l). Assessed via documentation in student learning outcomes, and use of the current literature and evidence-based practices (including suicide risk assessment and response) in the informal and formal case presentations in class, and the submitted written case conceptualization and treatment plan.

30. Crisis intervention, trauma-informed, and community-based strategies, such as Psychological First Aid (CACREP Standard: 2.F.5.m). Assessed via documentation in student learning outcomes, informal and formal case presentations in group supervision, formal site evaluation (midterm and final) reviews, and use of the current literature and evidence-based practices (including multicultural and ethical guidelines and trauma-informed practices) in the submitted written case conceptualization and treatment plan.

31. Cultural factors relevant to clinical mental health counseling (CACREP CMHC Standard: 5.C.2.j). Assessed via documentation in student learning outcomes, informal and formal case presentations in group supervision, formal site evaluation (midterm and final) reviews, and use of the current literature and evidence-based practices (including multicultural and ethical guidelines and trauma-informed practices) in the submitted written case conceptualization and treatment plan.

32. Record keeping, third party reimbursement, and other practice and management issues in clinical mental health counseling (CACREP CMHC Standard: 5.C.2.m). COURSE CONTENT: The program requires completion of a supervised internship in the student's designated program area of 600 clock hours (a minimum of 240 of those must be direct client contact hours), begun after successful completion of the practicum. The internship is intended to reflect the comprehensive work experience of a professional counselor appropriate to the designated program area. The faculty member will provide an average minimum of 1½ hours of group supervision per week to internship students. The supervising faculty member will also provide evaluations of the student's counseling performance throughout the internship, including documentation of a formal evaluation in consultation with the site supervisor at the end of the internship experience.

This course will consist of individual and/or group supervision, personal examination, reflection and discussion, and provision and utilization of feedback. Content areas include but are not limited to the following topics of professional development and practice:

- Examination and discussion of therapeutic variables
- Legal and ethical aspects of providing counseling services
- Working with diverse clients/populations
- Disclosure documents and informed consent process, client rights, referral procedures, case planning and management
- Intake and termination procedures
- Use of counseling aids.
- Development of personal counseling approach.
- Case staffing and case presentations.
- Evaluating and determining effectiveness in counseling.

Method of Instruction: This is a clinical course involving lecture, supervision, and group discussion including professional development questions, clinical case presentations, and review of current literature in the field.

General Expectations:

This course meets once a month for 6 hours, and due to the nature of this course, you are expected to be at all scheduled class sessions. While some events are unavoidable, it is imperative that you attend all class sessions. Therefore, requests to leave early or miss a session are discouraged. Class participation includes being present for all group meetings, providing consistent and constructive feedback to peers, being prepared for supervision, integrating supervisory feedback, and clearly demonstrating commitment to personal and professional development. Additionally, you will be expected to read all assigned material and complete course assignments by the dates indicated without exception. If a student is unable to attend the scheduled group supervision listed on this syllabus, they will be required to attend an equivalent number of hours of group supervision on the nearest available campus. The student will be responsible for organizing their additional group supervision attendance with the instructor of record for the appropriate campus.

Evaluation: This course is graded on an “S/U” basis. An “S” grade indicates satisfactory demonstration of the course requirements and is the equivalent of a letter grade of either “A” or “B.” A grade of “U” indicates unsatisfactory demonstration of the course requirements and is the equivalent of a letter grade of “F.” Grades for this course are determined through the professional judgment of the supervisor.

The Wiley (Jongsma) Treatment Planner series is a good starter set, and there are a number others out there as well; some clinicians/agencies prefer to pay for electronic services such as Simple Practice (more expensive but certainly convenient). What you use may be determined in part by your site, but I encourage you to experiment with several options to find out which resources are most helpful as you are learning to write standardized treatment plans and notes that are HIPPA compliant and synchronized with the field and the requirements of third-party payors (i.e., CMS standards).

Course Requirements/Assignments:

- Read the Internship Handbook and adhere to all policies and paperwork requirements outlined in this handbook.
- Complete the online HIPAA training program and ensure current compliance with annual re-training (this course must be completed every year by any student enrolled in a practicum or internship course)
- Maintain current liability insurance for the duration of the internship and related activities. Students should provide a copy of their liability insurance to their university supervisor prior to their first day on-site and provide an updated copy of the renewal policy if the insurance expires during the internship period.
- Regular Attendance with active and constructive participation in class discussion and supervision meetings. Complete assigned readings prior to class meetings and be prepared to discuss.
- Complete a formal written case conceptualization and treatment plan according to the outline provided by the instructor.

- Present at least one peer-reviewed/juried article from the literature to the class, leading a discussion on how the material in the article has directly influenced their counseling development (approach, style, skills, etc.) with particular clients. Present a hard copy for each student and the instructor, along with an outline of your reflection on how the material in the article has influenced your counseling skills.
- Provide additional informal case presentations to class during group supervision, as appropriate.
- Share best practices and resources with the class: resources and interventions that you have used or would like to apply to your practice. There are two documents in this folder for you to contribute to:
 - Resources: Share resources that you have found helpful in your work. Consider community organizations, websites, partnership, professional development, and other resources that you or your site supervisors have found helpful. Provide a brief description.
 - Interventions (direct services) that you have used or could use (e.g., small group activities, individual, couples or family interventions). Please provide a description so others can incorporate the intervention in their own work. These may include worksheets, curriculums, lesson plans, mindfulness activities, or other approaches.
- Articulate a personal theoretical orientation and begin to demonstrate its application in sessions and in case presentations.
- Actively engage in and regularly report professional self-care activities.
- Demonstrate an openness to and willingness to incorporate supervisory feedback in a professional manner, to improve counseling effectiveness.
- Demonstrate awareness, knowledge, and skills in counseling clients who are culturally different, including but not limited to race, gender, sexual orientation, socioeconomic differences, etc.
- Provide feedback to fellow class members in group supervision
- Arrange and participate in site evaluation reviews between student, faculty supervisor/instructor and on site supervisor each semester.
- Articulate a personal theoretical orientation and begin to demonstrate its application in sessions and in case presentations
- Demonstrate appropriate counseling skills equivalent to a master's level counselor (attending, empathy, respect, concreteness, genuineness, immediacy, and confrontation). Use skills and competencies such as:
 - a. Opening and closing an interview
 - b. Responding effectively to cognitive and affective content of clients' communication
 - c. Setting outcome goals with clients and planning change strategies with clients
 - d. Employing a variety of counseling techniques, procedures, and resources as appropriate.
- Accept and use supervisory feedback in a professional manner, to improve counseling effectiveness

- Demonstrate awareness, knowledge and skills in counseling clients who are culturally different, including racial, ethnic, gender, sexual orientation or socioeconomic differences.
- Follow all ACA ethical guidelines.

APCE Professional Membership Policy: As a graduate student in a professional counseling training program, membership in ACA, ASCA and/or AAMFT is required. The faculty strongly encourage you to become a member of your regional and state professional association as well, e.g., ACES, CCA, etc.

Professional Liability Insurance Policy: All students are required to show proof of having professional liability insurance before being allowed to take an internship course. Of note, student liability coverage is included in ACA membership, so demonstration of current ACA membership satisfies this requirement.

Academic Integrity

Students are expected to practice academic honesty in every aspect of this course. Students who engage in academic misconduct are subject to grading consequences with regard to this course and/or university disciplinary procedures through the Student Conduct and Accountability. More information about the academic misconduct process can be found in UNC's Student Code of Conduct (BEAR Code).

Academic Conduct: Cheating on assignments or examinations, submitting work of other students as your own, or plagiarism in any form will result in penalties ranging from an "F" on an assignment to expulsion from the University. UNC's policies and recommendations for academic misconduct will be followed.

APCE Policy on Plagiarism: Plagiarism is the act of appropriating the written, artistic, or musical composition of another, or portions thereof; or the ideas, language, or symbols of same and passing them off as the product of one's own mind. Plagiarism includes not only the exact duplication of another's work but also the lifting of a substantial or essential portion thereof. Students who have engaged in the act of plagiarism will be given an "F" in that course. The matter will be referred to the Review and Retention Committee. The decision of the Committee with regard to plagiarism includes the possibility that the student be dismissed from his or her respective program and from UNC.

No Use of Generative AI Permitted

Intellectual honesty is vital to an academic community and fair evaluation of your work. All work submitted in this course must be your own, completed in accordance with the University's academic regulations. You may not engage in unauthorized collaboration or make use of AI composition software. AI Writing tools are not permitted for any stage of work in this class. If you use these tools, your actions would be considered academically dishonest and a violation of UNC's Academic Honesty Policy.

Professional Conduct: Students are expected to know and adhere to the appropriate code of ethics for their particular program and their respective professional association (e.g., ACA) code of ethics. Ethical violations (any behavior which is deemed unethical) may result in failure of the course and possibly dismissal from the program. Students are expected to adhere to the appropriate code of ethics for their particular program. Any behavior which is deemed unethical will be grounds for dismissal from the program.

Portable Electronic Devices: Please extend courtesy to your instructor and fellow students by turning off your portable electronic devices. Although not an audio issue, text-messaging is a distraction to other students and prevents you from full participation in class. You should keep your portable electronic devices away during class. Your personal electronic devices should not be on your desks. If you know that you may need to accept an emergency phone call during class, please let the instructor know. If you need to take a phone call during class, please step out of the classroom while you complete your call.

Recording Devices: Using recording devices or recording software/apps in the classroom of any type will not be permitted (e.g., audio, video). Any unauthorized audio recordings of class will not be allowed and would be considered unprofessional and unethical. Students wishing to utilize audio or video recording of classroom lectures must be provided prior approval from this instructor or an accommodation letter from Disability Resource Center Services. Violations may result in failure of the course and possibly dismissal from the program.

Social Media: There should be no information related to this course or your clients posted or shared on any social media platform or the internet in any way. Violations may result in failure of the course and possibly dismissal from the program.

Disability Resources

It is the policy and practice of the University of Northern Colorado to create inclusive learning environments. If there are aspects of the instruction or design of this course that present barriers to students' inclusion or to accurate assessments of students' achievement (e.g. inaccessible web content, use of videos without captions), students should communicate about these aspects with their instructor(s). Additionally, if you have a temporary health condition or a permanent disability that requires accommodations, contact the Disability Resource Center (DRC) as soon as possible. DRC facilitates the interactive process that establishes reasonable accommodations. Office: (970) 351-2289, Students can learn more here: www.unco.edu/disability-resource-center

Title IX / Equal Opportunity

The University of Northern Colorado is committed to providing a safe and inclusive learning environment for all students that is free from discrimination and harassment, including sexual harassment, sexual assault, domestic violence, dating violence, and stalking. Students who have experienced (or who know someone who has experienced) any of these concerns should know that they are not alone. UNC has staff members in the University's Office of Institutional Equity and Compliance (OIEC) who are trained to support students in navigating these concerns and are able to provide on- and off-campus resources and supports, referrals to health and counseling services, academic and housing modifications, and mutual no-contact orders between individuals.

Please be aware all UNC instructors and most staff members are required to report their awareness of sexual misconduct to the OIEC. This means that if students tell an instructor about a situation involving sexual harassment, sexual assault, dating violence, domestic violence, or stalking, the instructor must share that information with the Title IX Coordinator and Equity Officer, Dr. Matt Ricke. Dr. Ricke or a trained staff member in OIEC will contact the reporting students to let them know about resources and support services at UNC as well as their options to pursue an investigation through OIEC, law enforcement, or both. Students who have experienced these types of incidents are not required to speak with OIEC staff regarding the incident. Students' participation in OIEC processes are entirely voluntary.

If students do not want the Title IX Coordinator notified, instead of disclosing this information to the instructor, students can speak confidentially with the following people on campus and in the community. They can connect you with support services and help explore options now, or in the future. UNC has confidential victim advocates available 24/7 by phone – students can contact the Assault Survivors Advocacy Program \(ASAP\) at 970-351-1490 to seek confidential guidance and support.

Equity and Inclusion

The University of Northern Colorado (UNC) embraces the diversity of students, faculty, and staff. UNC honors the inherent dignity of each individual, and welcomes their unique perspectives, behaviors, and world views. People of all races, religions, national origins, sexual orientations, ethnicities, genders and gender identities, cognitive, physical, and behavioral abilities, socioeconomic backgrounds, regions, immigrant statuses, military or veteran statuses, sizes and/or shapes are strongly encouraged to share their rich array of perspectives and experiences. Course content and campus discussions will heighten your awareness of others' individual and intersecting identities. For information or resources, contact the Division of Diversity, Equity and Inclusion, at 970-351-1944. If students want to report an incident related to identity-based discrimination/harassment, please visit www.unco.edu/institutional-equity-compliance.

Food Insecurity

Knowing that food insecurity is experienced at higher rates among college students, UNC offers assistance to students facing food insecurity through an on-campus food pantry. The Bear Pantry is located in University Center 2166A and is open for regular hours throughout the semester. Please visit www.unco.edu/bear-pantry for more information.

Land Acknowledgment

The University of Northern Colorado occupies the lands in the territories of the Ute, Cheyenne, Lakota and Arapaho peoples. The University acknowledges the 48 tribes that are historically tied to the state of Colorado. Thus, the land on which UNC is situated is tied to the history and culture of our native and indigenous peoples. UNC appreciates this connection and has great respect for this land. Additionally, the University community pays its respect to Elders past, present, and future, and to those who have stewarded this land throughout the generations. As part of the learning and reflection process please visit <https://native-land.ca/> or call the Office of Equity & Inclusion at 970-351-1944.

Name in Use/Pronoun in Use/Name Change

Some students may have changed their names to better reflect their gender identity or for other reasons. The process to request that the University change the name that appears on Canvas and on the course roster is available here: <https://www.unco.edu/registrar/name-change.aspx>

Student Well-Being

Students often experience stressors that make it difficult for them to meet the challenges of their courses—stressors like sleep problems, financial concerns, relationship concerns, employment difficulties, feelings of anxiety, hopelessness, or depression. If you are struggling with this class, please visit me during office hours or contact me via e-mail.

If you're not sure where to turn, the website for UNC's Student Outreach and Support (SOS) office lists a wide variety of resources for students. Case Managers in the SOS office can assist students during difficult circumstances which may include medical, mental health, personal or family crisis, and illness or injury. Mental health professionals are available for free, confidential consultations in the Counseling Center. To access staff in the Counseling Center, call 970-351-2496 or stop by the Center, located on the second floor of Cassidy Hall. If you are experiencing a crisis after-hours, call the Counseling Center and press #2 to connect with a crisis counselor.

University Libraries

The University Libraries has the spaces, resources, and support you need to help you achieve your academic goals. Visit us at Michener Library, on west campus, or at Skinner Music Library, on central campus. Check out all the resources we offer, from scholarly journal databases and streaming media to laptops and anatomical models, at our website: <https://www.unco.edu/library/>. Supervisee Skills Rating Form

Please use the scale below to rate the supervisee across each of the following dimensions.

Use the scale on the left side for the mid-term evaluation, and the scale on the right side for the final evaluation.

1 = Student is in need of further training and/or requires additional growth, maturation, and change in order to be effective in the various skill areas; trainee should not be allowed to function independently.

2 = Competence is below average but, with further supervision and experience, is expected to develop satisfactorily; independent functioning is not recommended and close supervision is required.

3 = Competence is at least at the minimal level necessary for functioning with moderate supervision required.

4 = Competence is above average, trainee can function independently with periodic supervision.

5 = Competence is well developed and trainee can function independently with little or no supervision required.

N = Insufficient data to rate at this time.

- The faculty has approved this form for evaluation in Clinical Internship for MA students. It is a CACREP requirement that a copy of this evaluation is to be included in the student's file upon course completion.
- This form has been adapted and modified. It was originally developed for use in the internship manual for MA students in Community Counseling: Couples and Family Therapy Emphasis and for use in Family Practicum with MA and Doctoral students by Lia Softas-Nall, Professor of Counseling Psychology and adopted by the APCE faculty. It appears as a published contribution in Hovestadt, C. et al (2002). Practice management forms: Tools for the business of therapy. Washington, DC: American Association for Marriage and Family Therapy.

CASE CONCEPTUALIZATION & SELF-SUPERVISION FORMS

(To Be Completed by all Students During Practicum I, Practicum II, Couples & Family Practicum, and Clinical Internship)

Please note, you will be required to submit this as part of your permanent student file, documenting ongoing student learning outcomes during your clinical training experiences. You will be graded on this assignment according to the rubric provided in the syllabus so please follow the outline.

Tips for the Oral Presentation in Class: Seek to Get Your Question Answered. As always, take any suggestions from the internship group or consultation group back to your site supervisor BEFORE attempting or intervening in any way with your clients.

- Begin with the end in mind, or in other words, have a purpose for what you are sharing. The central question to be answered is: What do you want from the group with which you are sharing this information? (Feedback, treatment planning, resources, specific questions, ethical concerns, etc. etc.)
- Share only what is relevant. Too often too much irrelevant information is shared, so report only that information which is germane. Make a list of important details, use professional language [not referring to client by their diagnosis, be clear, & specific, describe behaviors without value judgments].
- Be Flexible & Mindful of Time. Others may want to stop you and ask a question or seek clarification. A skilled presenter can balance some questions with his or her presentation. If someone asks a question that you plan to address later, simply and professionally, tell them and then move on. You are responsible for managing the time.
- Interaction and Questions. After you present, there most likely will be a period of discussion and further clarification. Be sure your question(s) or concerns were addressed. You may wish to take notes during the discussion so you can remember later. Help to keep the discussion focused.

Thank the group for their time and feedback.

Protecting Personal Health Information in Research: Understanding the HIPAA Privacy Rule

The Privacy Rule allows a covered entity to de-identify data by removing all 18 elements that could be used to identify the individual or the individual's relatives, employers, or household members; these elements are enumerated in the Privacy Rule. The covered entity also must have no actual knowledge that the remaining information could be used alone or in combination with other information to identify the individual who is the subject of the information. Under this method, the identifiers that must be removed are the following:

1. Names.
2. All geographic subdivisions smaller than a state, including street address, city, county, precinct, ZIP Code, and their equivalent geographical codes, except for the initial three digits of a ZIP Code if, according to the current publicly available data from the Bureau of the Census:
 - a. The geographic unit formed by combining all ZIP Codes with the same three initial digits contains more than 20,000 people.
 - b. The initial three digits of a ZIP Code for all such geographic units containing 20,000 or fewer people are changed to 000.
3. All elements of dates (except year) for dates directly related to an individual, including birth date, admission date, discharge date, date of death; and all ages over 89 and all elements of dates (including year) indicative of such age, except that such ages and elements may be aggregated into a single category of age 90 or older.
4. Telephone numbers.
5. Facsimile numbers.
6. Electronic mail addresses.
7. Social security numbers.
8. Medical record numbers.
9. Health plan beneficiary numbers.
10. Account numbers.
11. Certificate/license numbers.
12. Vehicle identifiers and serial numbers, including license plate numbers.
13. Device identifiers and serial numbers.
14. Web universal resource locators (URLs).
15. Internet protocol (IP) address numbers.
16. Biometric identifiers, including fingerprints and voiceprints.
17. Full-face photographic images and any comparable images.
18. Any other unique identifying number, characteristic, or code, unless otherwise permitted by the Privacy Rule for re-identification.

University of Northern Colorado
Professional Counseling Programs: APCE 692
Internship in Clinical Mental Health Counseling
Course Supervision Contract

Purpose:

This document is intended to: establish parameters of supervision; assist in supervisee professional development; and provide clarity in supervisor responsibilities including client protection. The purpose of the supervisory relationship is to safeguard client welfare and enhance supervisee development. The intern recognizes that both the intern and the supervisor are responsible for clients' welfare; by signing this document, the supervisee, acknowledges and agrees to immediately notify the site supervisor in writing (with a copy provided to the UNC internship supervisor) of any problems that arise within the context of the therapeutic relationship, and to notify the UNC clinical supervisor if the site is unresponsive to the supervisee's needs. The intern also recognizes that supervision is intended to promote supervisee progress in completing the requirements of the training program, and fulfill academic requirements in preparation for the supervisee's pursuit of professional counseling licensure; the supervisee therefore agrees to immediately notify the supervisor of any problems, discrepancies, or concerns that arise within the context of the supervisory relationship.

This contract between Danielle M. Kahlo, Ph.D. (APCE 692 Course Instructor) and the student intern at The University of Northern Colorado, serves to verify the provision of face-to-face clinical group supervision (in addition to required weekly on-site agency supervision), per CACREP and UNC academic training standards. This contract further documents that the intern has an official and signed contract with the internship site and has and will maintain professional liability insurance.

I. Competencies Expectations

- A. It is expected that supervision will occur in a competency-based framework.
- B. Supervisees will self-assess clinical competencies (self-awareness, knowledge, skills, and values/attitudes). This assessment will be conducted verbally and/or in writing during group supervision meetings at the UNC campus to which the intern is assigned.
- C. Supervisors will compare supervisee self-assessments with their own assessments based on: report of clinical work; group supervision; in-class self-evaluation instruments and competency-based activities, and recordings of client-trainee interactions (if deemed necessary during the course of interactions between the faculty and the on-site supervisor for the provision of ongoing training and intern development, and if approved of and supplied by the internship agency/site in a confidential manner during a faculty supervisor site visit. No client information is ever to be removed from the agency site).

- D. The initial level of supervision will take place monthly, on the UNC campus to which the intern is assigned, supplemented by site visits from the UNC faculty supervisor to the clinical internship agency each semester. Any changes in this level will be discussed in supervision.

II. Context of Supervision

- A. Six hours of face-to-face group supervision will be provided per month in a professional environment that ensures confidentiality.
- B. Supplemental individual supervision will be provided on an as-needed basis, in coordination with the on-site agency supervisor.
- C. Supervision will consist of multiple modalities including: discussion, instruction, modeling or role-playing, mutual problem-solving, and small group discussions.

II. Evaluation

- A. Feedback will be provided informally and is related to competency based goals.
- B. Summative evaluation will occur in conjunction with the on-site supervisor during mid-term and final site evaluation.
- C. If the supervisee does not meet criteria for successful completion of internship, via the requirements of BOTH the University and the internship site/agency, the supervisee will be informed at the first indication of this, and supportive, and remedial steps will be implemented to assist the supervisee.
- D. If the supervisee continues not to meet criteria for successful completion of the internship, procedures delineated in the Review and Retention manual may be instituted by the training program up to and including dismissal from the training program.

IV. Duties and Responsibilities of the University Internship Supervisor

- A. Upholds and adheres to the ACA Ethical Principles and Code of Conduct.
- B. Oversees and monitors trainee's continuing development of clinical competencies (i.e., client case conceptualization and treatment planning, professional ethical behavior and self-awareness, knowledge of areas of the field including theories of counseling, multicultural practice, diagnostic information according to DSM-V, etc.).
- C. Develops the supervisory relationship and establishes an appropriate emotional tone.
- D. Assists in the development of goals and tasks to be achieved in supervision, specific to assessed competencies.
- E. Presents challenges to and problem solves with the supervisee.
- F. Provides suggestions regarding client interventions/evaluation procedures and directives for clients at risk.
- G. Ensures that ethical guidelines are upheld and intervenes when client or supervisee welfare is at risk.
- H. Identifies theoretical orientation(s) used in supervision and therapy and takes responsibility for integrating theory in the supervision process. This includes assessing the supervisees' theoretical understanding/training/orientation(s).
- I. Identifies and builds upon supervisees' strengths specific to assessed competencies.
- J. Introduces and models use of personal factors including belief structures, worldview, values, culture, transference, counter-transference, and parallel process in assessment/therapy and supervision.

- K. Maintains a professional relationship with the supervisee and ensures a high level of professionalism in all interactions.
- L. Identifies and addresses strains or ruptures in the supervisory relationship.
- M. Establishes informed consent for all aspects of supervision.
- N. Maintains a file of supervisee documents, including internship contract (Handbook Attachment A), intern's documentation of current insurance coverage, and logs documenting hours of clinical work on internship (Handbook Attachment D).
- O. Distinguishes and maintains the line between supervision and therapy.
- P. Identifies delegated supervisors who will provide supervision/guidance if and when the supervisor is not available for consultation.
- Q. Discusses and ensures understanding of all aspects of the supervisory process outlined in this document, and the underlying legal and ethical standards from the onset of supervision.

V. Duties and Responsibilities of the Supervisee

- A. Upholds and adheres to the ACA Ethical Principles and Code of Conduct
- B. Comes prepared to participate actively in class activities, and to discuss client cases including conceptualization, diagnosis, treatment planning and ethical and multicultural considerations.
- C. Is prepared to present integrated case conceptualization that is culturally competent.
- D. Brings personal factors (e.g., transference, counter-transference, and parallel process) to supervision and is open to discussing such factors.
- E. Identifies goals and tasks to be achieved in supervision specific to assessed competencies.
- F. Identifies specific needs relative to supervisor input.
- G. Identifies strengths and areas of future development.
- H. Understands the liability (direct and vicarious) of the supervisor with respect to supervisee practice and behavior.
- I. Discloses errors, concerns, discrepancies in clinical and administrative practices, and clinical issues as they arise.
- J. Raises issues or disagreements that arise in the supervision process with the aim of moving towards resolution.
- K. Provides feedback to supervisors on the supervision process (regularly, not simply at the end of internship), with the goal of working together towards meeting ongoing and developing needs.
- L. Responds non-defensively to supervisory feedback and implements supervisory directives in subsequent sessions.
- M. Within the context of the agency/site's professional training protocol and standard practices, each intern will provide their clients with information regarding: (1) the limits of confidentiality;(2) the intern's training status; (3) the name of their on-site supervisor(s); and (4) the fact that their supervisor(s) will be reviewing cases as well as any audio or video recordings of sessions.

- N. At the outset of treatment, interns will inform clients about the expected duration of the treatment and the process by which the clients' care would be transferred to the supervisor or another therapist if additional contact was required.
- O. Interns will maintain records consistent with community practice standards and current ethical standards of care (best practices). This includes such things as documenting all client contact and completing all notes within 24 hours of contact, ensuring that all client information, notes, records, etc. are maintain in a double-locked capacity (i.e., in a locked filing cabinet in a locked room), and engages in case management activities solely on-site (i.e., never takes case notes or confidential client information off-site). Process or supervision notes, without client identifying information, are not part of the client record and are to be kept at the internship in a secure location. The intern will Notify the UNC faculty supervisor, immediately, if the agency is non-compliant with ethical standards in client care, professional behavior, or record-keeping practices.
- P. Interns will consult with the delegated agency/site supervisor in all cases of emergency and maintain a protocol of available agency personnel to contact if an emergency presents on site. A supervisor must be contacted in all emergency situations; if the agency site supervisor and delegated back-up emergency agency contacts are unavailable, the trainee should contact the university supervisor and follow designated agency/site emergency procedures, which will be explained to the trainee during orientation at onset of internship. If this training does not occur, the intern should specifically request it from the agency supervisor; if the agency does not comply, the intern should notify the university faculty supervisor immediately. Note: interns are not to be assigned after-hours emergency duty by the agency/clinical site; it is unethical and irresponsible treatment of clients in crisis. Interns should decline this task if they are assigned it by the site and notify the UNC faculty supervisor immediately if the agency is does not comply with this standard. Interns may shadow/follow a licensed professional who is designated by the site as responsible for covering emergency duty.

VI. Procedural Aspects

- A. Although in supervision only the information that relates to the client is confidential, the supervisor will treat supervisee disclosures with discretion.
- B. There are limits of confidentiality for supervisee disclosures regarding clients or themselves. These include but are not limited to ethical and legal violations , indication of harm to self or others, or potential endangerment to client welfare or violation of the ACA ethical code. In the aforementioned cases, the supervisor reserves the right to consult with other APCE faculty.
- C. The supervisor may discuss the supervisee's development and strengths with the Professional Counseling faculty at UNC.
- D. Written progress reports may be submitted to the faculty for inclusion in the trainee's permanent student file, describing his/her development, strengths, and areas of concern.
- E. If the supervisor or the supervisee must cancel or miss a supervision session, the session will be rescheduled.

- F. The supervisee may contact the university faculty supervisor at (970) 351.1021 or danielle.kahlo@unco.edu.

Supervisor's Scope of Competence:

Supervisor's training, experience and licensure information is available at the supervisee's request, through a copy of the supervisor's current vitae/resume. This contract may be revised at the request of supervisee or supervisor. The contract will be formally reviewed at onset of internship, and at intervals more frequently if indicated. Revisions will be made only with consent of supervisee and approval of supervisor.

Supervisee and Supervisor agree to follow to the best of our ability the directives laid out in this supervision contract and to conduct ourselves in keeping with our Ethical Principles and Code of Conduct, laws, and regulations.
