

COURSE SEQUENCE (66 credits)

First Fall	First Spring	First Summer
NURS 703 - Philosophical Underpinnings of Nursing Science (3)	NURS 711 - Advanced Theory and Knowledge Development in Nursing (3)	NURS 724 - Design, Methods and Analysis in Health Care Research, Part II (3)
NURS 790 – Doctoral Research Colloquium (3)	NURS 723 - Design, Methods and Analysis in Health Care Research, Part I (3)	PSY 681 - Cognition and Instruction I (3)

Second Fall	Second Spring	Second Summer
NURS 741 - Evidence–Based Teaching (3)	NURS 760 - Advanced Nursing Curriculum Design and Program Evaluation (3)	NURS 702 - Advanced Concepts of Vulnerable Underserved Populations (3)
SRM 700 - Advanced Research Methods (3)	SRM 680 - Introduction to Qualitative Research (3)	NURS 797(A) - Doctoral Proposal Research (2)

Third Fall	Third Spring	Third Summer
NURS 707 - Leadership in Health Policy (3)	NURS 780 – The Professorial Role in .;- Nursing Education (3)	NURS 730 – The Scholarship of Teaching and Practice in Nursing Education (2)
NURS 710 – Measurement of Nursing Student Outcomes (3)	ELECTIVE (3)	ELECTIVE (3)

Fourth Fall	Fourth Spring	Fourth Summer
NURS 797(B) - Doctoral Proposal Research (2)	*NURS 799 - Doctoral Dissertation (6)	*NURS 799 - Doctoral Dissertation (6)

Updated 4/9/18

* The distribution of the required 12 credit hours of NURS 799 are scheduled in consultation with your Research Advisor. You must register for at least 1 credit or pay the continuous enrollment fee the semester in which you graduate.

Six (6) credits of electives are required, suggested scheduling is presented. The above sequence of these is only a suggestion